"If anyone should ask you to buy stock in a movie film manufacturing company, follow the custom of the big financial centers, and grab him. If you know him as a friend, and a good on' at once. Judging from the past performance in the movie industry you can feel surer of wealth in sight than if you had a barrel of gold buried in your back yard. Somebody could steal your barrel, but nothing could stop your profits from a film com-

In a letter written by one of the leading moving picture capitalists, he says: "The possibilities of the moving picture business are hard to realize, but even the avera; three-reel production returns a profit of $36,000 net a year. The larger sub jects in six and eight reels have much larger profits, some of them bringing over half a million dollars in royal-

Some people wondered why Tonopal was selected as the site for the home studio of the Nevada Film company that would engage in manufacturing films for general distribution, but the reasons are apparent. First and fore most, because of the clear atmosphere that is always found at this elevation of 6000 feet above sea level. Every thing is run by electric power here and there are no dense clouds of smoke to fog picture films. The industries of Tonopah and vicinity are min ing in various lines. The mines are operated upon a large scale, with mod

A PLEA OF GUILTY

W. T. Fisher, who was arrested at Reno and brought back by Chief Evans to stand trial on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, pleaded guilty this morning in Justice Dunseath's court. The amount involved is $33.50. Fisher stated that he received a telegram that his mother was dead and he started drinking and, while intoxicated, he collected this money from business men for advertising that never appeared. Judge Dunseath reserved judgment until this afternoon to hear from other towns he is presumed to have worked in a similar manner.
